

The East Norfolk Railway runs steam trains on a section of preserved railway track. It is open to the public during school holidays and some weekends, but also runs education days for primary school children teaching them about life on the railways.

A script has been produced for a short educational video that will be made available on the company's website. Part of this is shown in Figure 1.

PRESENTER
In 1939 war broke out between Britain and Germany. School children from cities like London
were sent to live in safer areas of the country.

They were called evacuees. This is their story.

INT: 1930S SCHOOL ROOM - DAY
A teacher is standing in front of a class of school children with suitcases

School bell rings

TEACHER
Evacuation is for your own good children. If you stay here you may be hurt by enemy bombers
