

Filmora – using still images

Still images can be used on the video track as full screen images, or can be added on top of a track as a picture in picture effect

1. Drag the image into a new video track above the main video

2. Click on the image on the Preview Pane and resize it from a corner
Drag it into position (hint: not right on the edge)