

Name:

What is a Computer?

1. Fill in the blanks using the words in the box.

A computer is a which deals with data.

Data is any information. Computers data so they can use it again.

Computers take data and it. This changes the data in some way.

Computers data so that people know things. This can be done on a screen or by using sounds.

store	delete	machine	internet
present	digital	e-mail	process

2. Fill in the table with examples of the three things computers do

Store data	Process data	Present data
Store photos	Calculate your score in a game	Play music

3. What do each of these words mean in computing?

store
process present

True or False – Computers

Computers use electricity for power	True	False
Computers can do anything	True	False
Computers always have a screen and a keyboard	True	False
Computers store data	True	False
Computers make our lives easier	True	False
Everything that is stored in a computer ends up as a number	True	False
	True	False
	True	False